

CCSS ELA Reading Informational - RI 1. Read closely to determine what the text says explicitly and to make logical inferences from it; cite specific textual evidence when writing or speaking to support conclusions drawn from the text.	K	With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about key details in a text.
	1	Ask and answer questions about key details in a text.
	2	Ask and answer questions such as who, what, where, when, why, and how to demonstrate understanding of key details in a text.
	3	Ask and answer questions to demonstrate understanding of a text, referring explicitly to the text as the basis for the answers.
	4	Refer to details and examples in a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
	5	Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.
	6	Cite textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
	7	Cite several pieces of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
	8	Cite the textual evidence that most strongly supports an analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
	9-10	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as inferences drawn from the text.
	11-12	Cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly, as well as inferences drawn from the text, including determining where the text leaves matters uncertain.

CCSS ELA Reading Informational - RI 2. Determine central ideas or themes of text and analyze their development; summarize the key supporting details and ideas.	K	With prompting and support, identify the main topic and retell key details of a text.
	1	Identify the main topic and retell key details of a text.
	2	Identify the main topic of a multi-paragraph text as well as the focus of specific paragraphs within the text.
	3	Determine the main idea of a text; recount the key details and explain how they support the main idea.
	4	Determine the main idea of a text and explain how it is supported by key details; summarize the text.
	5	Determine two or more main ideas in a text and explain how they are supported by key details; summarize the text.
	6	Determine the central idea of a text and how it is conveyed through particular details; provide a summary of the text distinct from personal opinions or judgments.
	7	Determine two or more central ideas in a text and analyze their development over the course of the text; provide an objective summary of the text.
	8	Determine a central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including its relationship to supporting ideas; provide an objective summary of the text.
	9-10	Determine a central idea of a text and analyze its development over the course of the text, including how it emerges and is shaped and refined by specific details; provide an objective summary of the text.
	11-12	Determine two or more central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.

CCSS ELA Reading Informational - RI 3. Analyze how and why individuals, events, or ideas develop and interact over the course of a text.	K	With prompting and support, describe the connection between two individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.
	1	Describe the connection between two individuals, events, ideas, or pieces of information in a text.
	2	Describe the connection between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text.
	3	Describe the relationship between a series of historical events, scientific ideas or concepts, or steps in technical procedures in a text, using language that pertains to time, sequence, and cause/effect.
	4	Explain events, procedures, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text, including what happened and why, based on specific information in the text.
	5	Explain the relationships or interactions between two or more individuals, events, ideas, or concepts in a historical, scientific, or technical text based on specific information in the text.
	6	Analyze in detail how a key individual, event, or idea is introduced, illustrated, and elaborated in a text (e.g., through examples or anecdotes).
	7	Analyze the interactions between individuals, events, and ideas in a text (e.g., how ideas influence individuals or events, or how individuals influence ideas or events).
	8	Analyze how a text makes connections among and distinctions between individuals, ideas, or events (e.g., through comparisons, analogies, or categories).
	9-10	Analyze how an author unfolds an analysis or series of ideas or events, including the order in which the points are made, how they are introduced and developed, and the connections that are drawn between them.
	11-12	Analyze a complex set of ideas or sequence of events and explain how specific individuals, ideas, or events interact and develop over the course of the text.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

K	Identify the front cover, back cover, and title page of a book.
1	Know and use various text features (e.g., headings, tables of contents, glossaries, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text.
2	Know and use various text features (e.g., captions, bold print, subheadings, glossaries, indexes, electronic menus, icons) to locate key facts or information in a text efficiently.
3	Use text features and search tools (e.g., key words, sidebars, hyperlinks) to locate and interpret information relevant to a given topic efficiently.
4	Describe the overall text structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in a text or part of a text.
5	Compare and contrast the overall structure (e.g., chronology, comparison, cause/effect, problem/ solution) of events, ideas, concepts, or information in two or more texts.
6	Analyze how a particular sentence, paragraph, chapter, or section fits into the overall structure of a text and contributes to the development of the ideas.
7	Analyze the structure an author uses to organize a text, including how major sections contribute to the whole and to the development of ideas.
8	Analyze in detail the structure of a specific paragraph in a text, including the role of particular sentences in developing and refining a key concept.
9-10	Analyze in detail how an author's ideas or claims are developed and refined by particular sentences, paragraphs, or larger portions of a text (e.g., a section or chapter).
11-12	Analyze and evaluate the effectiveness of the structure an author uses in his or her exposition or argument, including whether the structure makes points clear, convincing, and engaging.

CCSS ELA Reading Informational - RI 6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.	K	Name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the ideas or information in a text.
	1	Distinguish between information provided by pictures or other illustrations and information provided by the words in a text.
	2	Identify the main purpose of a text, including what the author wants to answer, explain, or describe.
	3	Distinguish their own point of view from that of the author of a text.
	4	Compare and contrast a firsthand and secondhand account of the same event or topic; describe the differences in focus and the information provided.
	5	Analyze multiple accounts of the same event or topic, noting important similarities and differences in the point of view they represent.
	6	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and explain how it is conveyed in the text.
	7	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author distinguishes his or her position from that of others.
	8	Determine an author's point of view or purpose in a text and analyze how the author acknowledges and responds to conflicting evidence or viewpoints.
	9-10	Determine an author's particular point of view and analyze how an author uses rhetoric to advance that point of view or purpose.

7. Integrate and evaluate content presented in diverse media and formats, including visually and quantitatively, as well as in words.

K	With prompting and support, describe the relationship between illustrations and the text in which they appear.
1	Use the illustrations and details in a text to describe its key ideas.
2	Explain how specific images (e.g., a diagram showing how a machine works) contribute to and clarify a text.
3	Use information gained from illustrations (e.g., maps, photographs) and the words in a text to demonstrate understanding of the text.
4	Interpret information presented visually, orally, or quantitatively (e.g., in charts, graphs, diagrams, time lines, animations, or interactive elements on Web pages) and explain how the information contributes to an understanding of the text in which it appears.
5	Draw on information from multiple print or digital sources, demonstrating the ability to locate an answer to a question quickly or to solve a problem efficiently.
6	Integrate information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words to develop a coherent understanding of a topic or issue.
7	Compare and contrast a text to an audio, video, or multimedia version of the text, analyzing each medium's portrayal of the subject (e.g., how the delivery of a speech affects the impact of the words).
8	Evaluate the advantages and disadvantages of using different mediums (e.g., print or digital text, video, multimedia) to present a particular topic or idea.
9-10	Analyze various accounts of a subject told in different mediums (e.g., a person's life story in both print and multimedia), determining which details are emphasized in each account.
11-12	Integrate and evaluate multiple sources of information presented in different media or formats (e.g., visually, quantitatively) as well as in words in order to address a question or solve a problem.

9. Analyze how two or more texts address similar themes or topics in order to build knowledge or to compare the approaches the authors take.

K	With prompting and support, identify basic similarities in and differences between two texts on the same topic (e.g., in illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).
1	Identify basic similarities in and differences between two texts on the same topic (e.g., in illustrations, descriptions, or procedures).
2	Compare and contrast the most important points presented by two texts on the same topic.
3	Compare and contrast the most important points and key details presented in two texts on the same topic.
4	Integrate information from two texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.
5	Integrate information from several texts on the same topic in order to write or speak about the subject knowledgeably.
6	Compare and contrast one author's presentation of events with that of another (e.g., a memoir written by and a biography on the same person).
7	Analyze how two or more authors writing about the same topic shape their presentations of key information by emphasizing different evidence or advancing different interpretations of facts.
8	Analyze a case in which two or more texts provide conflicting information on the same topic and identify where the texts disagree on matters of fact or interpretation.
9-10	Analyze seminal U.S. documents of historical and literary significance, including how they address related themes and concepts.
11-12	Analyze seventeenth-, eighteenth-, and nineteenth-century foundational U.S. documents of historical and literary significance for their themes, purposes, and rhetorical features.
